PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Denver ASWA Members and Friends:

It is hard to believe that the end of summer fast approaches! Our scholarship fundraiser has come and gone and our peaches are ready to enjoy. The children and grandchildren will be returning to school soon. Changes and opportunities continue to unfold for all of us at ASWA!

How will you contribute to ASWA in this coming year? I commend all of the members who have chosen to serve as officers and chairpersons this year! Sharing your time, energy and ideas are much appreciated by the board and me. There are also many opportunities for others yet to fill, open chair positions or to help with committee activities. You are welcome to bounce your ideas off me via e-mail or phone or in person. There are many ways to extend yourselves beyond the status quo, but of course, it is you that needs to want to grow! I encourage you to accept the challenge and create new areas to explore.

We need members to sit at the ASWA information table at Metro State College for their Accounting Student Organization (ASO) meeting on the evening of September 12th. We also need members to help with the Rocky Mountain Area Conference at the Arvada Center on September 25th and 26th. We help each other when things feel uncertain or intimidating, so please do not be afraid to try something new. There is certainly room for extraverts, introverts and blends in our organization! You definitely have something unique to share with us that no one else can give ASWA. Please join us with enthusiasm and allow yourselves to unfold as part of the Denver Chapter of ASWA! Together we make a powerful organization!

The next board meeting is on Monday, September 29, 2008 at the DAC from 6PM to 7PM. Officers please make sure that you come as we need a quorum to make some decisions. Chairpersons please try to come to the meeting and give us an update on your committees, or if you cannot come, e-mail me a report a few days before the date. Other interested members may come to learn more about how our organization operates locally and nationally.

I hope to see you all at the next program meeting. Take Care!

Jeanine

Update on the Mountain Weekend Getaway – Adventures in Keystone

Five intrepid ASWA members spent a fun, laughter-filled weekend in Keystone in July. While hiking on Friday evening, Carol Marsala and Brooke Moreland came face to face with a black bear, well maybe not exactly face to face, but we did see a black bear and he saw us.

Saturday four of us attacked the River Golf Course at Keystone. We managed to complete nine holes of golf with only a few balls lost and a few trees hit in the process. After lunch at the golf course, we took in the Blues and Arts Festival. Evening fell and we went on a bear hunt, didn't see the bear again, but had another adventurous hike.

Sunday found us saying our farewells and driving back to Denver.
